Founder's Day (Ghana)

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Founder's Day is national public holiday observed in Ghana to mark the birthday of Ghana's first president, Osagyefo Dr. Kwame Nkrumah the founding father of Ghana. President Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo is set to propose legislation to Parliament to designate 4th August as FOUNDERS DAY, and 21st September as Kwame Nkrumah Memorial day, both of which will be observed as public holidays.
